Chatswood muay thai fighter Dylan Resnekov, 26, has retained his Australian title with a third-round knockout of Ben Sandejas. "It was tough - Ben was a great opponent," he said. "And it was fantastic to have my friends, family and students from VT1 gym cheering me on," he said. "The belt means a lot but to win in front of my gym and my friends was more important." Resnekov's connections say his success has prompted interest from Foxtel.* Photo gallery at northshoretimes.com.au
